

Newsletter January 2019

WELCOME

For the benefit of chaplains and the wider healthcare constituency, the Newsletter continues to highlight news of and insights into chaplaincy issues. Please let us know if you have any comments or suggestions for future editions or if you have any items of interest to submit.

*Happy
New Year*

Functions of the UKBHC

UKBHC is a multifaith organisation of practising healthcare chaplains whose primary objects are to:

- Promote the health, safety and wellbeing of patients and service users and the protection of the public, through the UKBHC Code of Conduct and the maintenance of the register of UKBHC registered health and social care chaplains.
- Advance and disseminate the knowledge and practice of healthcare chaplaincy;
- Define and develop professional standards of chaplaincy including education, training and continuing professional development;
- Train advisers to support employers in the selection and appointment of healthcare chaplains;
- Operate procedures to consider, investigate and assess the professional conduct of registered chaplains;
- Maintain and develop systems to promote and accredit continuing professional development and the professional registration of chaplains.
- Maintain a voluntary register of health and social care chaplains.

WEBSITE

The main vehicle for contact with the UKBHC is the website - www.ukbhc.org.uk.

Please access the website regularly to keep up-to-date with important information for chaplains and others. Please also advise us if your own information needs updated.

Spotlight on members of the UKBHC Board: Maura Devlin MBE, recently appointed Lay member -

Maura is a registered nurse and currently the Director of Nursing in the Down Federation of General Practitioners in Northern Ireland. She has also held Director level posts across a range of Health & Social Care organisations with experience of managing both hospital and community services. She is also a member of the Nursing and Midwifery Council where she has acted as vice-chair since 2015. In addition she has further regulatory experience in her role as independent chairperson for Fitness to Practice proceedings for the Northern Ireland Social Care Council.

Maura is a registered nurse health visitor and qualified midwife. She also holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Health Service Management.

Maura brings significant experience of working in a range of settings in the NHS. She brings a knowledge and expertise of professional regulation and a commitment to recognising the role of hospital chaplains in meeting the spiritual needs of patients and clients alongside the importance of regulation in delivering public protection.

Rev Philip Wright was nominated for a Nursing Times award for the work he has done around Dignity in Dying and the creation of the Daisy Bereavement Centre. He attended the Nursing Times Awards in October 2018 at the Grosvenor House Hotel; Unfortunately he didn't win but being nominated was an honour.

Rev Norman Harrison took up post as NIHCA Director of Training in July 2018. Rev Derek Johnston retired from the position after 11 years service.
